

Design Assistant | Werkstudent (f/m/d)

At ysurA, design is at the center and core of our products and services. To advance and expand our design team we're looking for a motivated working student.

Main responsibilities

- Assisting the design and marketing teams through building graphical assets for print and digital media
- Creating of document templates for internal and external use
- Maintaining, improving and administrating the company website

Your profile

- You're a design student (or have similar skills) who knows Adobe CC (especially Illustrator, Photoshop and InDesign)
- You want to learn about web design and website administration
- You have knowledge about UI design and can use tools such as Sketch, Framer and Figma

We offer

- Lots of room for learning and mentorship
- The ability to work in an extraordinary work environment surrounded by a top team
- Great location (easy to access and a lot of nice stuff to do around)
